NOTE: FCC is seeking a full-time minister to focus on the advancement of God's word, through preaching, teaching, and leading environments that reveal the truths of Scripture. The Minister, alongside the Elders, will also be responsible for the general "care/shepherding" of the congregation, as well as lead outreach and follow-up ministry efforts to help us accomplish our mission of "Bringing people into a relationship with Christ, Building them up in their faith, and Sending them out to make a difference in their world." The ideal candidate will have a heart for preaching and teaching God's word, communicating with high levels of effectiveness in print and verbal forms. Additionally, we desire a candidate whose heart is bent towards caring for the needs of the body, as well as seeking and reaching those not yet a part of the body of Christ. FCC has its roots in the "Restoration Movement" and continues to associate with the churches that consist of the Christian Church/Churches of Christ. Our worship gatherings are modern in expression. Our facility expanded in 2003 to accommodate 400 in the worship center. Currently FCC has 1 Full-Time associate, and a volunteer "youth leader" leading ministry efforts for grades 12 and under. If you are interested in learning more about this position, please send your resume and a statement of your beliefs. We also seek either a DVD or video links to messages you have preached. Please either email or mail this information to the address above. First Church of Christ is located in southwest IA. The community of Atlantic is considered to be "half-way" in-between Des Moines, IA, and Omaha, NE along I-80. Atlantic IA is the county seat of Cass County IA and is considered to be the Coca-Cola capitol of IA. Atlantic has a newer YMCA facility that is a very active part of our community. Atlantic's school district is also seeing growth. For a more complete overview of the community of Atlantic, please follow the following link. <http://www.atlantiaciowa.com/>

NOTE: Harrison Christian Church, Johnson City, TN, is seeking a senior minister to preach, pastor and lead the congregation. Our average weekly attendance is between 90 and 100. The senior minister is considered a full-time paid elder, and thus the congregation is looking for an individual with the spiritual qualifications of an elder. Harrison Christian Church has a full time Children/youth minister who oversees the high school and youth programs of the church, and has a part-time worship minister who leads Sunday morning worship with the help of a praise band. In addition, the church has a secretary, parish nurse and a media coordinator. The senior minister, under the supervision of the board of elders, coordinates the activities and directions of the ministry staff, plans worship activities, and helps maintain an active pastoral ministry including calling. The church is located in Johnson City, a vibrant community in Northeast Tennessee that boasts very large medical community due to a medical school and a VA hospital, a large regional university (East Tennessee State University), and a Christian church college (Milligan College). The church has a stable membership made up of a good mix of ages. The church is looking for an active minister who can help the church grow, both in size and spiritually. Candidates should have at least a bachelor's degree in a ministry related major, ideally a master of divinity degree, and previous experience in church ministry. Applications and expressions of interest should be directed to the above address or e-mail.

NOTE: Southeast Christian Church in Salt Lake City, Utah is looking for an experienced Senior Minister. Our ideal candidate is a gifted communicator, grounded in God's Word. Candidate loves God's people—the Church; is a contagious leader, whose shared vision and passion will promote spiritual and personal growth for himself, the staff, and the congregation; has a heart for the lost, to see them become growing followers of Christ, transformed into His image, proclaiming the Good News to the world; is a skilled administrator, well-organized, makes efficient use of his time and resources. We are a congregation with room to grow with a sanctuary that can comfortably hold over 400 worshippers. A building expansion completed in 2001 added new office space, a commercial kitchen, a full-sized gymnasium, and a large unfinished basement space. We are blessed to have a building and property well suited for community outreach. We are an elder-led, Restoration Movement church. Currently, we have a single Sunday service with stable attendance (adults and children) averaging around 225. We offer a Small Groups ministry, Sunday school ministry, and mid-week activities for youth and women. Our full-time staff consists of a Children's/Youth Minister and Office Manager. A Worship Minister and Custodian make up our part-time staff members. We have strong Ministry Leaders in Finance, Missions, Music, Property and Equipment, Sports and Women's Ministries. All applications for the open position will be acknowledged after receipt. The application review process will begin in earnest in January, 2014. A complete job description is posted on our web site at southeast.cc. Email or mail your resume to the above e-mail or address.
